Greene County Board of Health Approves Strategic Plan for 2024-2026

XENIA, OH – Greene County Public Health officials have announced that at the January meeting, the Board of Health approved the strategic plan for 2024-2026.

This document provides a planned approach and clear picture of what the organization plans to achieve over the next three (3) years. It outlines the organization's role, priorities, and direction for 2024-2026. The plan is updated annually to reflect progress towards goals.

For 2024, GCPH's organizational goals to be accomplished will be completing the reaccreditation application and hosting GuardCare in August 2024. Each employee plays a role in the accomplishment of the organizational goals and in turn helps to improve the health outcomes for the citizens of Greene County.

The Strategic Plan, along with five (5) other updated plans related to Accreditation, can be found on Greene County Public Health's website at <https://www.gcph.info/platform/cms/Accreditation>
